INDEX FOR VOLUME V, CHILD-WELFARE MAGAZINE

A Spinster's Criticism, 26
Aims and Purposes of National Congress of Mothers, 27, 60, 94, 121, 135, 168
A Toast: The Baby—The Master in the House, 31
A Message to Mothers and Parents' Circles, 94
Another Needless Tragedy, 120
A Christian Land, 32
Assurance. A poem, 44
A Plea for the Parent-Teacher Association, 45
A Hero, 65
At the Child-Welfare Exhibit, New York, 94

Boston Seeks to Stop Use of Cigarettes, 155

Child Study: A Definite Course in Reading, 87, 161
Children. A Poem, 8
Children's Needs in Manitoba, 9
Child Labor in Europe, 12
Concerning Manners, 162
Child Hygiene in the Rhode Island Congress of Mothers, 164
Country Flats and City Flats, 200

Department of Child Hygiene—Clean School-Houses. Helen C. Putnam, A.B., M.D., 85, 104, 5, 41, 100, 121, 152
Death of Mrs. James H. McGill, 4
Does Kindergarten Training Aid the Child's School Work? 55
Death of Mrs. W. W. Murphy, 79

Economic Worth of Child Study. Prof. O. H. Bakeless, 4
Extension Work of the National Congress of Mothers, 51

Failure of our Schools, 15
Foreign News, 30
Faith. A poem, 52
Founders' Day—National Congress of Mothers, 57
"From a Mother's Heart," 96
Faith. A poem, 157
From Day to Day. A poem, 199

How Shall We Best Conserve Our Nation's Moral Force? By Elizabeth Harrison, 35
How to Start a School for Young Mothers, 81
How we Make Criminals, 126

Importance of Work for Children, 83
Industrial Education, 47
Important Notice, 103

Kindergarten News—The History of a Great Movement, 115, 54, 166
Kipling's New Poem, 67

Literature and Loan Papers, 100, 134, 35

Message from Parent-Teacher Department, 62
Message from Child-Welfare Publicity Chairman, 31
My Boy, 91

National Congress of Mothers. Frederic J. Haskins, 23
National Congress of Mothers, 30, 67, 99, 133, 36, 75, 111, 147, 179
Notice to Mothers' Circles, 19
New Way to Raise Money, 74
"Naughty Boys," 86
New Department Chairmen, 93
Need of Co-operation, 97
National Publicity Committee, 110
New Books, 196
National Congress of Mothers, 1911. A Poem, 203

On Returning the Confidence of our Children, 14
On the Teaching of Religion to Children, 51

Proceedings of the Fourteenth Annual Convention Congress of Mothers, 43
Press and Publicity Work for the National Congress of Mothers, 61
Parents' Appeal for Clean Schoolhouses, 7
Preparing the Child for School, 53
Prevention of Blindness, 66
Parent-Teacher Department, 92
Playground Association of America, 124

Rural Child Welfare, 16, 98
Resolutions on Death of Mrs. James H. McGill, 102
Replies of Prisoners in U. S. Penitentiaries on Preventing Children from Entering Criminal Lives, 130
Resolutions Adopted by Second International Congress on Child Welfare, National Congress of Mothers, 189
Responsibility of a Father to His Child, 197

Some Extracts from Social Gospel (Evangile Social) From L'Enfant, 25
State News, 27, 64, 95, 121, 19, 68, 103, 136, 173, 204
Saving the Babies, 73
Stories and Story Telling, 111
Second International Congress on the Welfare of the Child, 33, 80, 113, 184
Scope of Parents' Associations and Programme, 119
Study Outline. From "Moral Education," 158

The President's Desk, 1, 33, 69, 101, 1, 37, 77, 117, 149, 181

The Necessity of the Co-operation of Parent and Teacher. By Mrs. John Threadgill, 9
The New York Child-Welfare Committee. Prepared by Mary L. Read, 19
The Twentieth Century Halo, 22
To You. A poem, 57
The Social Point of View, 60
The Master is Coming. A poem, 63
The Art of Home-making: Its Place in the College Curriculum, 7
The Fatherland. A poem, 80
The Detention House at Erie, Pa., 88
The Solution of the City Problem. By John Hamilton, 89
The Mothers' Congress—A Song, 114
The Effect of Heredity on Character, 119
The Sacred Shrine. A poem, 17
The Rainyday Cupboard. A poem, 18
Truancy: A Few Causes and a Few Cures, 167
The Children. A poem, 172

"Under the Prophet in Utah." By Frank J. Cannon, 118

Wanted—Rooseveltian Landlords! 58
Woman's Contribution to the Country Life Movement, 107
What are Woman's Duties? 133
We'll See, 163

Young Girls Should Study Infant Hygiene, 18